

THE DEC NETWORK

IMPACT REPORT 2022

WHO IS THE DEC NETWORK?

The DEC Network is a 501c3 nonprofit organization driving parity and economic impact by helping entrepreneurs start, build and grow their businesses.

Since 2013, we have been launching physical hubs, events, and education programs for startups, with a particular focus on women and entrepreneurs of color. Born from a shared vision among small business and entrepreneurship advocates, The DEC Network believes investment in entrepreneurs is an investment in the community.

TESTIMONIAL: CASEY MORRIS

"Through our work with The DEC Network, we have built relationships with large companies like Microsoft and The Dallas Mavericks, grown as leaders and entrepreneurs, shared and inspired others with our testimony, and learned so much from the education, networking and opportunities provided by their resources."
